
CONNOR WENTLING

Keynote Speaker | Helping professionals and teams navigate uncertainty with clarity, confidence, and humor

ABOUT CONNOR

Connor Wentling is a professional speaker who helps organizations navigate uncertainty with humor, philosophy, and hard-won experience. A Marine Corps veteran and helicopter pilot, philosophy graduate, improv performer, and Master's-level leadership scholar, Connor brings a rare combination of disciplines to the stage.

His talks draw on Stoic philosophy and improv comedy to give audiences practical tools for responding to change — with more clarity, less panic, and the occasional laugh. Equal parts entertaining and useful, leaving audiences informed, encouraged, and ready to act.

Spoken for HR conferences, municipal associations, federal agencies, law firms, healthcare organizations and the military. Based in Rock Hill, SC. Available nationally.

SIGNATURE TALKS

Philosophy 101: When Life's Uncertain, Get Stoic

Five battle-tested Stoic strategies for handling uncertainty with clarity, resilience, and calm. Practical. Timeless. Immediately useful.
